

THE 20TH ANNUAL STUDENT SERVICE LEADERSHIP WORKSHOP

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 2017

Hosted by: The Mayerson Foundation High School Service-Learning Program
& University of Cincinnati Center for Community Engagement

Workshop Location: UC's Tangeman University Center (TUC)

Workshop Participants: 8 students, 2 teachers per high school

BREAKOUT SESSION PRESENTER

What should a breakout session include?

- A breakout session should challenge, inspire, and equip student leaders with new ideas, activities, and approaches in community engagement. This does not mean hard recruiting for any one organization, but rather, helping students see service and volunteerism in new ways, educating on current social or justice issues, and encouraging them get more involved.
- Breakout sessions should include at LEAST one interactive activity with students.
- Breakout sessions should include at LEAST one opportunity to share what schools are currently doing in your presentation interest area. Sharing is encouraged!
- A breakout session should not be lecture. It should incorporate idea sharing and best practices among students.

What is should I expect as a presenter?

- If your breakout session is chosen, workshop materials, presentation room specifications (including room capacity and A/V capabilities), and parking instructions will be sent 4 weeks prior to the Workshop for planning purposes.
- Parking validation is provided for presenters.
- University of Cincinnati students and/or event volunteers will aid in timekeeping for each breakout session. These students will stop a presentation once the session time has elapsed.
- Arrival at least 20 minutes before scheduled breakout session is strongly encouraged. Presenters will check-in at the registration table outside of the Great Hall and find the appropriate presentation space. There are 10 minutes between sessions.

COMMUNITY CONNECTIONS CORNER EXHIBITOR

What is should I expect as an exhibitor?

- Check-in by 12:45 p.m. to claim an exhibit table in the atrium level of Tangeman University Center (maps will be provided; tables are pre-assigned)
- 600+ students/teachers arrive in the atrium by 1:10 p.m. with Community Passports to learn more about present agencies.
- Feel free to collect contact information, discuss opportunities available for high school students, and how a participant's school could serve YOUR organization (drives, volunteer opportunities, fundraising)
- Each of your connection opportunities shared via email will be printed for each participant, serving as a volunteer guide for schools throughout the academic year.
